

Chevron in California by the Numbers

No. 1

Chevron is the largest company in California based on 2007 revenues.

1 in 250

Jobs in California supported by Chevron, directly and indirectly — a total of nearly 70,000 jobs in the state.

$9.2 billion

Estimated total value of Chevron's 2007 economic output in California, including direct and indirect value.

$750 million

Value of Chevron transactions with small, women- and minority-owned California businesses in 2007.

74 million

Barrels of California oil produced by Chevron's operations in the San Joaquin Valley in 2007, roughly 32 percent of the state's annual oil production (Energy Information Administration)

10,000

Number of jobs Chevron creates directly and indirectly in the Los Angeles area in addition to $1.7 billion in total economic output.

22,900

Number of jobs supported directly and indirectly in the Bakersfield area by Chevron, which accounts for about one-fourth of the region's economic activity industrywide.

30,000

Number of jobs Chevron supports directly and indirectly in the Bay Area, with $2.7 billion direct economic output and $1.7 billion of economic output in other sectors.

8.4 million

Safe miles driven in California by Chevron's gasoline delivery trucks in 2007

700

Number of Boeing 737 jetliners Chevron could fill daily based on its aviation fuel sales in California, where it is the largest supplier

329,000

Gallons of Chevron gasoline dispensed in 2007 on average each hour to Californians at more than 1,500 branded service stations statewide

3,000

The approximate number of deep-sea tanker voyages Chevron Shipping manages from its San Ramon, California headquarters, which help move the approximately 365 million barrels of crude oil Chevron transports per year.