

May 8, 2006

▲ Vision

The Richmond Workforce Investment Board will, through private industry and public agency partnerships, contribute to the economic growth of the region by promoting and overseeing a flexible and responsive workforce system, which aligns job seekers' skills with current and future employer needs.

Mr. Jim Brumfield
Public Affairs
Chevron
P. O. Box 1272
Richmond, CA 94802-0272

Dear Jim,

On behalf of the Richmond Workforce Investment Board and the RichmondWORKS program, I want thank you for your continued support of our efforts to improve and create opportunities for Richmond youth.

Your generous contribution of $75,000 for this year's Summer Youth Employment Program will enable seventy-five (75) Richmond youth to gain valuable work experience and develop work maturity skills as they engage in summer employment. Your financial contribution is tax deductible (tax ID # 94-6000403 IRS code section 170 (c) (1)).

Your commitment and support of Employment and Training Programs for Richmond residents serves as a model and a benchmark for other businesses.

Regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Sal Vaca", is written over a blue rectangular stamp area.

Sal Vaca,
Employment & Training Director