economic impact of wheatstone
creating enduring benefits to Australia

~$42.5 billion
boost in direct and indirect state and federal government revenues from 2009 to 2040

$153 billion+
added to Australia’s gross domestic product from 2009 to 2040

$15 billion
spent on local goods and services through 300 contracts with Australian companies since 2009*

7,000+
workers directly employed during peak construction in 2015

30,000+
direct and indirect full-time equivalent job years created from 2009 to 2040

In 2015, Chevron commissioned a study conducted by ACIL Allen Consulting for projects Chevron has invested in and our other activities in Australia. All economic forecasts are from 2009-2040 and are presented in real dollars.

*Based on the Wheatstone Project Cumulative Report on local content calculated in June 2017.

learn more about the wheatstone project at chevron.com/projects/wheatstone