

chevron in san joaquin valley

business unit

We strive to support the communities where we do business, focusing on education and economic development.

economic impact

Our operations create jobs, buy products and services from local businesses and generate property tax money that fund important government services.

71,000

barrels of oil-equivalent produced per day at our Central California fields

25%

approximate share of California's total oil production by Chevron
San Joaquin Valley

$6.3
million

contributed to nonprofit organizations in Central California

top 5

property taxpayer in Kern, Fresno and Monterey Counties in fiscal year 2024-25

$430
million

spent on products
and services

600

Chevron San Joaquin
Valley employees

1,200

Chevron San Joaquin Valley
service contractors

community impact

We strive to empower people to improve their lives, achieve their ambitions and meet their full potential.

- 4,337 hours volunteered by our team members
- 112 Kern, Fresno and Monterey County organizations supported
- $3 million invested in education

lower carbon

We're leveraging our capabilities, assets, partnerships and customer relationships as we aim to lower the carbon intensity of our operations and advance new products and solutions.

water use

Chevron is working to maximize beneficial reuse, support agriculture and conserve groundwater resources, especially in water-constrained areas like Central California.

- 98% of total intake was produced water
- 60% of water intake reused beneficially

Learn more about how we support the communities where we operate as we work to provide affordable, reliable, ever-cleaner energy at www.chevron.com/sjv

Data are from 2024. All values are annual, unless otherwise noted.